HISTORY

Twenty-eight excited happy Freshmen stormed the Entiat High School in the fall of '48; it didn't take the sophomores long to get us initiated. The girls were made to dress in overhalls and shirts wrong side out and backwards. Their hair, which was washed the night before, was arranged in a stunning new fashion, absolutely untouched by the teeth of a comb after the long night's sleep. The boys wore skirts and blouses and carried tin cans and baby bottles. That night we went on our humiliation treck through town and finally the high and mighty sophomores took us through the "Chamber of Horrors".

Eight of our boys made headlines in school sports. Howard Hinton, Don Olin, Carl Montgomery, Tracy Hornbuckle, Dale Schimke, Bob Patrick, Ray Bisping, and Clayton McCord.

Rosemary Whitaker was our Freshman Representative in the Annual School Carnival. We were sorry to loose Rosemary in '49.

We started off our Sophmore year by initiating the "Frosh".

During the year we gave three dances and two assemblies.

This same year we were joined by Clem Little who got right into the groove by making headlines in sports. Also prominent in sports were Don Olin, Ray Bisping, Tracy Hornbuckle, Carl Montogomery, Dale Schimke, Howard Hinton, Clayton McCord, Bob Patrick.

Bob Patrick won third place in the State public speaking contest.

We gave four plays. "Bessie The Bandits Beautiful Baby", "Lost and Found", "Hist She's a Man", and House of Greed". In these all the class participated. They were very successful. We appreciated Mrs. Kinzel's wonderful direction of our plays.

In our Junior year we were joined by Lowell Morical, Juanita Hanford, and Carol Burch.

Lowell Morical, Dale Schimke, Bob Patrick, Tracy Hornbuckle, Don Olin, Ray Bisping, Clem Little, Howard Hinton participated in sports.

"Three Misses and a Myth", our Junior play, a most hilarious comedy was enjoyed by everyone—even Miss Tenney, whom we ran almost crazy.

Maxine Sage represented us in the '52 Carnival.

All three '52 Cheer Leaders were from the junior class. They were Shirley Roller, Dixie Galbraith, and Donna Vogt. The girls were really full of pep and school sprit.

The spring Prom, "On the Bottom of the Sea", with soft---soft lights, shimmering ceiling, and the charming royalty: Queen Glenda Buckley and her Princesses Janice Asher and Joan Cozart, will linger elusively for years to come in the memories of the gay dancers.

We started our Senior year with twenty-five members. Of these twenty-two will graduate. Four who have completed all twelve years of school together are Dixie Galbraith, Lillian Wolf, Howard Hinton and Don Olin.

This year Lillian Wolf was the elected representative for the Senior's at the Carnival.

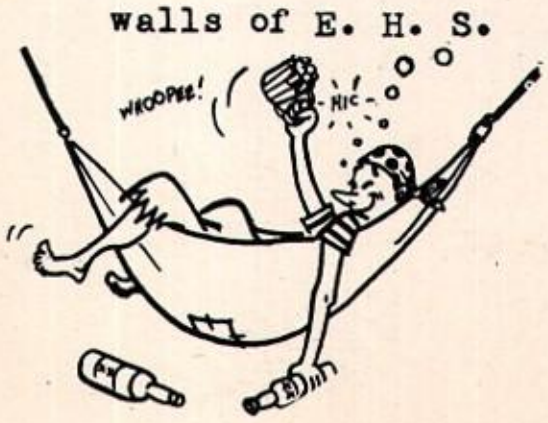
Our Christmas Dance with its theme "Silver Bells" and its plentiful supply of misletoe, gave many a swain a chance to kiss his maid.

Our senior play "House for Sale Haunted", was a huge success, even though it curled your hair, froze your blood, and chilled your bones.

Shirley Roller was chosen Princess Entiat. She, indeed, made an charming and capable princess.

We fondly recall the '53 Junior Prom with our lovely senior queen, Queen Dixie, reigning over the "Evening in Paris along with her two princesses Donna Vogt and Dean Hall.

Never to be forgotten are the days spent within the Ivy covered walls of E. H. S.



1953 PROPHECY

(AS PROPHESIZED BY "YE OLE SCHOOL HOUSE")

It can never be said, as I look to the past,
"There were unworthy members of the '53' class."
For they all strove for goodness, and glory and fame,
Now their all sitting pretty in my hall of fame!

As people of three thousand, three hundred and two,
Look back through the ages, at me and at you—
They'll see, and believe, that all of us here,
Made a very good name for our honorable year!

First through their "Atomical telaka-viser",
They'll look upon Clem and none could be wiser,
For he is a scientist, with a large telescope,
And a picture of Betty, I guess he's no dope!

Next we see, down in Carnigie Hall,
The one who is famous for her lovely bird call.
Yes it's Nita all right, pen-named Jeannie Swihart,
The sound of that name helps her play a good part!

Then through the mist we see one of our bunch,
Who caused so much static that I have a hunch
It is little Miss Roller, who was drilling again,
On some poor guys teeth, ya! she'll catch her man!

McGlothern is next where they'll focus their vision,
And golly what's this---is he really in prison?
Oh, no! He's just visiting some of the birds,
For he owns the joint. I can't think of words,

To express my astonishment over this fact—
And to think that one of the inmates is Max!
We thought we might see her again behind bars---
But not as a fan-dancer selling cigars!

Then they'll see Lowell working hard at his desk,
(But we know his nights are spent watching Burlesque!)
The two main attractions, needless to say
Are the cute bubble dancers---Dixie and Kay!

For the people of Entiat, who weren't getting their mail,
I saw through the window---why, the postmasters' Dale!
And even though working with money often brings errors,
Dale never says "die" when it comes to figures!

Now here comes a flatfoot, going home with sore feet,
Yes, it's little Howard at the end of his beat!
He would like to sit down by a babbling brook,
But he must fill his duty and bring in a crook.

We see a small house, with a green roof and all,
And can tell at a glance it's the abode of Dean Hall,
Her neighbors' the type, who'll fix her own roof---
Yes, up on the house-top, we see Lilly Wolf!

In another small house, golly, it's War!
But as we look closer it's just Eleanor!
Her friend Donna Thompson, is living near by,
We think she's gone crazy---she's trying to fly!

And speaking of flying there's a great big balloon---
It's Tracy and Ray, on their way to the moon.
And last but not least, flying straight up
Instead of a saucer, there goes Bob in a cup!

Who's this we see, with that beautiful girl?
Well blow me down its our old pal Carl!
He struck it rich with an oil well
Where that kid will go---nobody can tell!

Coming over the falls-in a little round barrel
There is a young girl that we use to call Carol,
We now call her "Lucky" for being so fast,
And descending the falls without even a mast!

The Modeling Career, our Jacquie picked out
We know she'll go far, without a doubt!
She's over in Paris, working six days a week---
We'll have to admit she has beautiful feet!

We see a $10,000 dollar, ally for bowlin'
And the prosperous owner is none other than Olin!
He seems to be happy---really makin' the dough
But his wife and his kids have to have it just so!

And here comes a girl with six babies to tote.
As silly as ever---our blond Donna Vogt.
So now as I'm closing,
And signing my name
Here's wishing this Class, good luck
With their fame!!!

CLASS WILL

We, the senior class of "53" of Entiat High School, having survived the trials and tribulations along the path of learning, and being of sounder memory than mind, do make and publish our last Will and Testament to the following:

Article I

To the Freshmen: We leave our ability to survive through these four test ridden years as we have.

To the Sophomores: We leave our good nature and studious attitudes.

To the Juniors: We leave our enthusiasm for knowledge.

To the Faculty: With whom we have had dealings, pleasant and otherwise, we leave, these Ivory Halls hoping the class of "53" will hold a pleasant spot in their memory.

Article II

I, Ray Bisping, will my late hours to Virginia Griffith.

I, Tracy Hornbuckle, leave my night life and little black book to Terry Cate. "Don't let me down Terry."

I, Lowell Morical, will to Jerry Dennison my dark curly hair and bulging bicepts.

I, Carl Montgomery, will my nickname "Romeo" to Don Thompson, don't wear it out Don!

I, Carol Burch, will my ability to sneak out of Study Hall, in order to eat early, to anyone who wants to take the chance.

I, Nita Hanford, leave my ability to play the piano to Shirley Carmicheal with hopes that she can hit all the right notes.

I, Lee Roy McGlothern, leave nothin', just be glad I'm gone.

I, Maxine Sage, leave my English Theme to Melvin Harris in hopes that he can get an "A" before he graduates, but this we beleive is hopless, don't you?

I, Dean Hall, will my Sociology notes to Betty Carter hoping that they make more sense to her than they do to me.

I, Dale Schimke, will my height and desire to play basketball to Duke Henson.

I, Dixie Galbraith, will my Air Force. night letters to Cleo Whitehall.

I, Donald Olin, through due process of law, will to Rush Roundy my seat in English class if there's anything left of it.

I, Donna Thompson, will to LeeRoy Hensley, my quiet reserve.

I, Donna Vogt, will my ability to stay out of trouble and get along with the teachers to Melvin Harris, Ronnie Little, and Wilbur Gordon, They need it!!

I, Jacquie Weimer, leave my seventh grade class to Pat DuPuis, in hopes that she can do something with them. I couldn't.

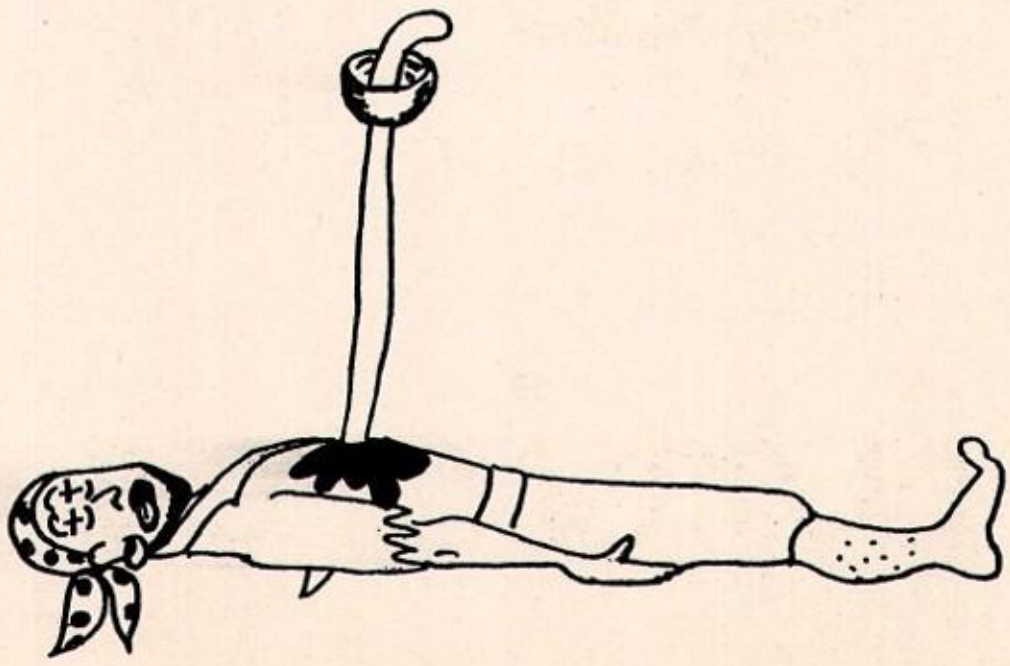
I, Clem Little, will my gracefulness on the basketball floor to Don Chappell, and also my History grades to future students who are crazy enough to want them.

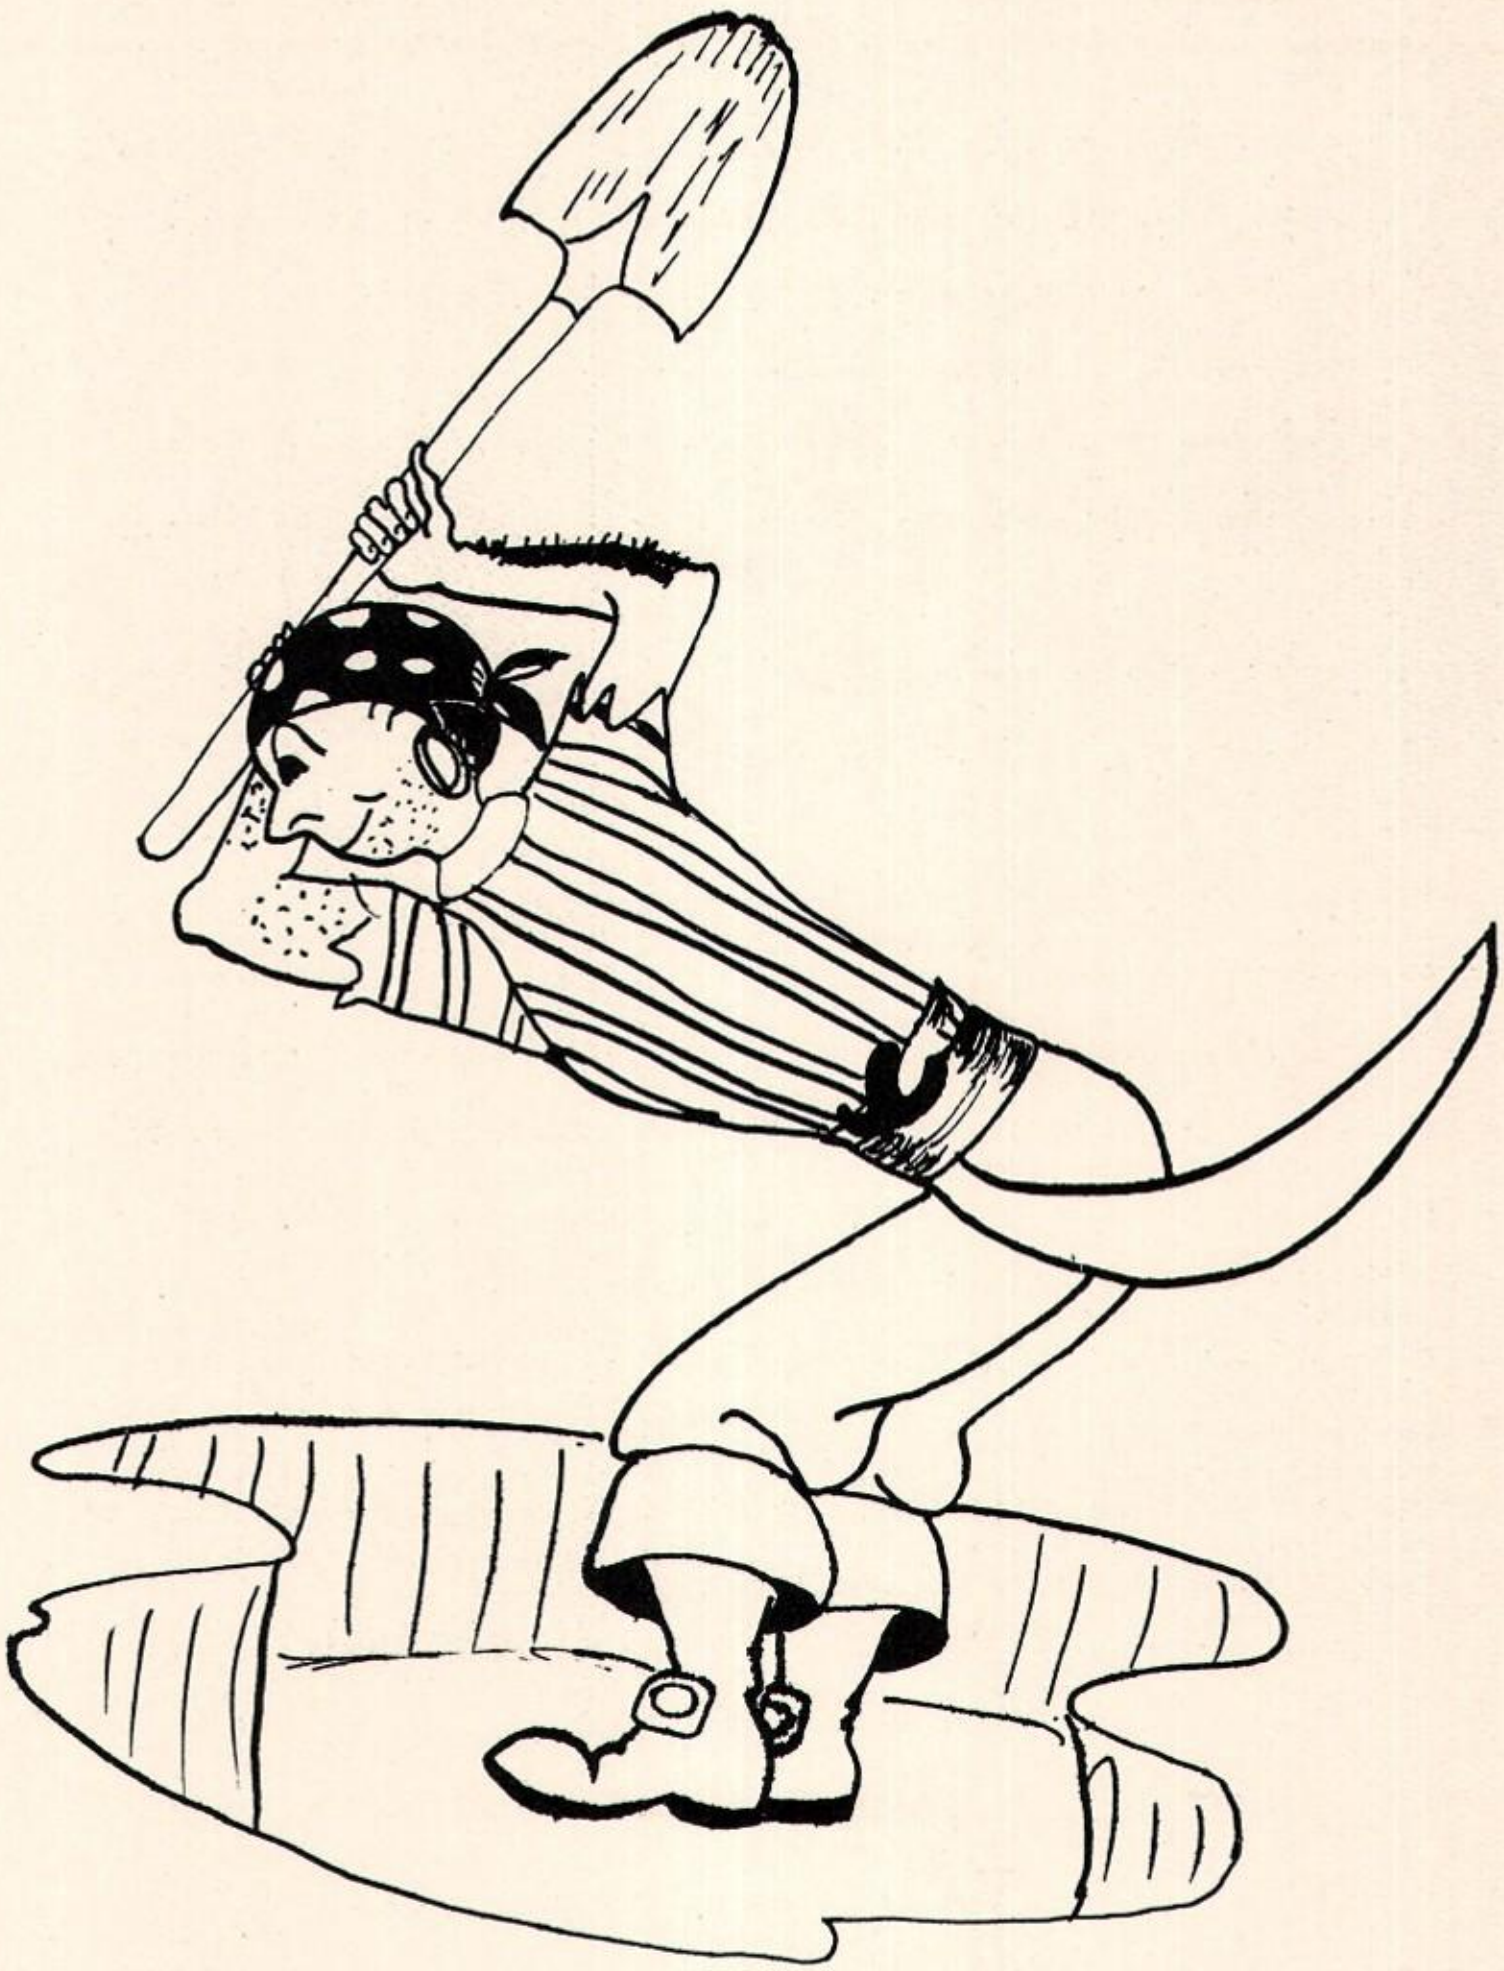
I, Lillian Wolf, leave my ability to draw to Betty Dissmore and my job as Librarian to Janet Baxter in hopes that she keeps the books well dusted.

I, Shirley Roller, will my height to Ronnie Richards.

I, Bob Patrick, will my ability to play football to any poor sucker who needs it.

I, Howard Hinton, leave my wrestling technique to anyone who thinks he can do it without getting twisted into knots.





Juniors

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

The junior class started off their third year in E.H.S with 31 students. Donna Huffman and Shirley Cassity moved away, Sharlene Bradley quit because of illness.

The "E. Hi Breeze" sailed right along this year under the Editorship of Gena Lou Dissmore. We think Miss Tenney, Gena, and the staff deserve a lot of credit.

We are very proud to say our Carnival candidate, Claudia Davis, was chosen queen of the 1952 Carnival.

Our class play, "Too Sweet For Sixteen," was presented in the High School Auditorium November 22, 1952. We hope the people enjoyed watching it as much as we enjoyed giving it. We feel that "Too Sweet For Sixteen," under the direction of Miss Tenney; student director, LeeRoy Hensley; and assistant director, Lloyd Jackson; was a complete success.

CLASS OFFICERS FOR 52 and 53

1st Sem.		2nd Sem.
LeeRoy Hensley	Pres.	Ronnie Franklin
Tony Gojenola	Vice Pres.	Chuck Asher

The charming Prom Queen, Dixie Galbraith and her lovely princesses, Donna Vogt and Dean Hall reigned over the "Evening in Paris" with its heavy perfume, soft lights, and rustling gowns. The splendid evening atmosphere pleasantly haunted the gay dancers as they waltzed to the music of Al Winter's Orchestra.

Those turning out for football were: Bill DuPuis, Bob Cowan, Lee Roy Hensley, Fred Montgomery, Don Chappell, Gary Kanzler, Tony Gojenola, Ronnie Franklin, and Chuck Asher. The boys turning out for basketball were: Bob Cowan, LeeRoy Hensley, and Don Chappell.

The Junior's wish to thank Mrs. Kinzel and Mr. Schimke for their excellent guidance during the year.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomores had a hectic time initiating the freshman since the frosh class is so much larger than ours—but it was fun. The initiation dance and the return fresh-soph dance topped the fun list.

We gained three new girls this year: Sharon Kronkite, Darlene Smith, Shirley Jensen. Two of these girls left before half the year was over. Fred Spears withdrew and enrolled in Wenatchee.

Darlene Smith was chosen to be the sophomore princess in the Carnival Royal Court.

The boys that turned out for football were: Gene DeCamp and Fred Spears. Those turning out for basketball were: Ronnie Richards, Randy Auvil, Lynn Hanan, Duane Henson, and Raymond Wolf. The boys turning out for baseball were: Randy Auvil, Lynn Hanan, and Bobby Wolf.

Our Sadie Hawkins dance, the high light of our activities, gave many a Daisy a run for her Abner.

With the helpful advice of Mrs. Richards and Mr. Merriman our year has gone swiftly. And were are looking forward to coming back next fall for another year of Work and Fun.

FRESHMAN CLASS NEWS

The freshman class has enjoyed their first year in high school. Our initiation wasn't as horrible as we expected, although it was tough—it was a lot of fun. We gave the sophmores a thank-you dance in return for the initiation dance they gave us.

Most of the freshman boys turned out for basketball and made the "B" squad. We are proud that one of the freshman boys, Alfred Keeler, made the "A" squad.

The freshman girls have participated in Girls Club and the FHA and the boys have participated in the FFA Club.

Activities

PEP CLUB

The 1952-53, Pep Club, which is the service organization of the school, continued its routine duties this year. Taking lunch money, collecting for assemblies, taking money at games, plays and at all school programs.

At the beginning of this year we had for the first time fifteen members, however we soon lost three members, leaving the original twelve. Later on in the year two other girls withdrew; Bette Olin and Betty Carter were selected to take their places. Members are chosen for this organization by their scholarship, service to the school, and qualities of character.

Highlight of the year was the Initiation of new members, it was in the form of a pot luck supper at Mrs. Kinzel's house. There was an abundance of good food, topped off with homemade ice cream. Everyone enjoyed the luscious eats, but Oh! our suffering waistlines. A similar initiation was held for our two new members. On both occasions the girls took the required initiation pledge during a candlelight ceremony; every girl was presented with a carnation.

To wind up the years activities, the Pep Club sponsored a festive Spring Dance.

We are proud to say that our new Gym was dedicated to our advisor, Mrs. Kinzel. We wish to express our appreciation to Mrs. Kinzel for her capable guidance this year.

"E" CLUB

The "E" Club continued the Thanksgiving Project-donating well filled baskets to the Welfare Department for distribution to needie families.

Excitement and romance accompanied the Traditional Sweetheart Dance as each lad whispered "sweet nothings" to his lass.

The club provided a new service this year-hall patrol. The patrol was to report all disorderly conduct to the Student Jury, who conducted court on Mondays-to determine the penalties for each offense.

The Club sponsored a Smoker to provide funds for the new Score Board, that has been used in the New Gym this season.

The member's feel that they have had a successful and progressive year under Mr. Lolos's wise guidance.

F.H.A.

The F.H.A. year started off with the installation of officers leaving the initiation of the new members until later in the year.

One of the high lights of the F.H.A. year was the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet, held December 9, at the gigh school. Seventy mothers, daughters, and teachers attended the dinner. Entertainment was provided by some of the girls.

Marge Packwood was chosen to represent our school in the district Cherry Pie Baking Contest. Marg took first place honors along with the Soap Lake contestant. Both girls received recognition for their entries in the state contest in Seattle.

F.F.A.

The Future Farmers of 1952-53 under Mr. Denham's wise guidence opened their fall activities with entrances in the Chelan and Waterville Fairs. A number of the boys received ribbons for their displays.

The Club purchased chickens for the poultry project but unfortunately coccidiosis ruined the flock.

The treasury has mounted to near the $200. mark through card sales. The money remaining from the year's expenditures has been placed in the "buy a truck" fund.

SPANISH CLUB

Under Miss Tenney's sponsorship the Spanish Club this year has formed a new friendship with the Nagoles Bible Institute, a school for Mexican students of high school age. The school is located in Nagoles, Arizona--the border town between Arizona and Mexico.

For Christmas the Club sent them a fruit cake, candy, nuts and popcorn balls; and received from them some rich Mexican candy.

The Annual Spanish Club Dinner was held January 29 in the High School. After the dinner the Club president gave the "Welcome" followed by several music numbers in Spanish. The program ended with a talk by Mr. Morgan who showed a sampling of the Mexican handicraft.

GIRIS CIUB NEWS

The Girls' Club's new emblem is a plain bronze pin with the initials "GC". A tiger head guard may be attached to the pin when the girls have earned 200 service points.

Activities this year have been many, such as: the Autumn Slumber party, making of scrap books for the Vets Hospital, collecting of glasses for India, and folding waste receptacles for the Deaconess Hospital. Besides these activities the girls bought and hemmed the material for the new cyclorama.

The Annual Spring Luncheon climaxed the years busy program under Mrs. Kinzel's enthusiastic leadership.

GLEE CLUB

Entiat has become more completely infested with music this school year. One example of this is the Glee Club formed by the students of Entiat who are taking Chorus. Their main function is to entertain, as is stated in the club constitution.

Chances are good for the new "Music Award" to be given to one of this Club's members who proves his ability, co-operation, and citizenship.

The "Singing Tigers", as they haved dubbed themselves, have proven their co-operation by their many performances throughout the year such as; singing at the Christmas Concert, Dedication of the Helen Kinzel Gymnasuim and the Spring Festival.

BASKETBALL NEWS

"County Champs", The Entiat Tigers, coached by Pete Lolos, won the 1953 County Championship taking three games in a row against Dryden, Leavenworth and Chelan.

The Tigers then went on to take second place in the North Central Washington District Tournament, which earned them a berth in the State Tournament in Tacoma.

"The Cinderella Team" as they were dubbed by their fans, ended their conference season with a league standing of five wins and five losses, and their regular seasons schedule with seven wins and ten losses.

Members of the "A" Squad were: Bob Patrick, Dale Schimke, Clem Little, Bob Cowan, Don Chappel, Don Olin, LeeRoy Hensley, Ronald Richards, Randy Auvil and Alfred Keeler. The "B" Squad members were: Howard Hinton, Raymond Wolf, Duane Henson, Bob Wolf, Troy Taylor, Charles Minnick, Jim Fordon, Gary McDonald, Mickey Acres and Alvin Shannon.

Danny Figlenski, Dick Smith and Terry Cate handled the job of managers very capably.

FOOTBALL

The Entiat Tigers, although 20 strong, dropped behind last year's gains. The squad played seven games loosing 6 and tying 1.

The team's low scoring was accredited to the many inexperienced players and also to the injury of several of the first string players.

Returning lettermen were: Bob Patrick who was captain of the team, Ray Bisping, Carl Montgomery, Bob Cowan, Don Chappell, Lowell Morical, Ronnie Sines, and Don Olin. Others truning out were: Ron Franklin, Fred Montgomery, Chuck Asher, LeeRoy Hensley, Gary Kanzler, Don Peterson, Gene DeCamp, and Tony Gojenola.
